

Database Administrator
Fort Leavenworth, KS 66027

Job Description:

Seeking a SQL Developer to join our data team in analyzing, developing projects, custom reports and work closely with the team on any SQL issues. This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious and agile person looking to grow and learn.

Responsibilities:

- Design, develop, and maintain database tables, stored procedures, and supporting objects.
- Build and support operational reports for company and clients.
- Work with data team to provide operational support, resolve recurring problems.
- Document database topology, architecture, processes and procedures.
- Develop SQL queries and support ad hoc requests for data.
- Assist with capacity planning and resource expansion through data aggregation and analysis.
- Work with project managers to ensure that reports and metrics identify business needs and opportunities for process improvement.
- Identify inefficiencies in the database platform and provide solutions to the management.
- Develop time estimates for assigned tasks.
- Use problem-solving skills to assist in resolution of business problems.
- Develop analytical skills to resolve technical problems.
- Provide technical support as needed.
- Identify root causes for problems and propose solutions to prevent recurring.

Education Requirements:

- BS Degree related to Computer Science

Experience Requirements:

- 3+ years MS SQL experience.

Preferred Experience:

- Thorough understanding of database structures, theories, principles, & practices.
- Ability to write & troubleshoot SQL code & design stored procedures, functions, tables, views, triggers, indexes, & constraints.
- Extensive knowledge of MS SQL Server 2005/2008/2012.
- Experience with Java and VB.Net
- Technical knowledge of MS SQL Server internals with emphasis on query performance.

Security Requirement:

- Be able to pass a background investigation. Previously cleared candidates preferred.